DETAILED ACTION

Information Disclosure Statement

The information disclosure statement filed 14 August 2006 fails to comply with 37 CFR 1.98(a)(2), which requires a legible copy of each cited foreign patent document; each non-patent literature publication or that portion which caused it to be listed; and all other information or that portion which caused it to be listed. It has been placed in the application file, but the information referred to therein has not been considered.

Specification

The disclosure is objected to because it does not include section headings (e.g., "Summary of the Invention," "Brief Description of the Drawings," etc.). Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Objections

Claim 10 is objected to because process steps should include an --ing-- ending; for example, "introduced" should be --introducing--. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

The use of the term "it" in the claims is indefinite because of the equivocal nature of the term. Each recitation of "it" must be replaced with a positive recitation of a specific term.

Claims 8 and 11 are process claims but do not properly recite any process steps.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1 and 8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Rasmussen (U.S. Patent 4,127,349).

Rasmussen discloses a slab having sections (2) divided by a groove (Figures 1-3).

Column 2, lines 65-66 specifically teaches the slabs to be broken at the grooves.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 2-7 and 9-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Rasmussen, as applied above.

Regarding size, it is standard practice in the art to use any size best suited to a particular paving application. For this reason, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to have used any sizes for Rasmussen.

Regarding claim 6, all steps are disclosed (column 3, lines 3-12) except for pressing. It is well known to press a material when molding in order to obtain a well formed finished product. For this reason, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to have pressed Rasmussen.

Regarding claim 7, there is no recited distinction between "facing concrete" and "ordinary concrete"; therefore, claim recitations are met by Rasmussen.

Regarding claim 9, it is well known that striking can break a frangible product. Because Rasmussen is designed to be frangible, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to have divided the slab by striking.

Regarding claim 10, it is common practice to fill a joint between slabs in the manner claimed. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to have filled joints of Rasmussen with filler or mortar in order to obtain a desired finished product.
